

SPANISH MINOR

Department: English and Foreign Languages
Building 50, Room 211
(850) 474-2923
English@uwf.edu

College: Arts and Sciences

The Minor in Spanish is designed to build upon the student's skills in speaking, reading, and writing the language, to provide fuller understanding of the structure of the language; and to increase knowledge and appreciation of the history and culture represented by the language. This minor is available to all undergraduate students.

A grade of "C" or better is required in all courses. The minor requires a minimum of 15 sh at the 2000 level or above of Spanish (SPN and SPW) courses of which 12 sh must be completed at UWF. Twelve of the hours must be at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Requirements (15 sh)

Choose 15 sh from the following to include at least 12 sh of 3000/4000 level courses:

SPN 2210	Intermediate Composition and Conversation	3
SPN 2220	Intermediate Reading and Translation	3
SPN 3400	Advanced Stylistics	3
SPN 3410	Composition and Conversation	3
SPN 4500	Spanish Civilization	3
SPN 4520	Latin American Culture and Civilization	3
SPN 4905	Directed Study	1-4